Fund-Raising Campaign to replace the roof on our church. As part of that campaign, we are selling a book titled A View from the Steeple, written by Midge Bakos. Her wonderful book is available at the Fair Trade Shoppe. The book costs $19.95 plus tax. The final cost is $21.70. If you want to purchase a book (or more than one) when the Fair Trade Shoppe is not open, Janice does have books in the church office. You will have to give her cash or check for $21.70 per book and she will give the money to the Fair Trade Shoppe during shop hours. The book is also available from Almost Local (on Park Row) and at the Historical Society. You also can buy it on Amazon, but their cost is $24.95 plus tax for each book. Thank you.

Hope House: has a special request for dinner plates and dry cereal. Please contact Ceil Gilbert (853-8289) if you have any questions.

The Fair Trade Shoppe: If anyone feels moved to support the West Bank Palestinian Christians whose livelihoods have been devastated, we are offering you the opportunity. We have the olive oil and za'atar mix that are made by a group of Israeli and Palestinian women working together in Israel. We also have dishes, bowls, appetizer plates, dipping bowls, olive wood creches and nativity sets that are made in Israel. Our cold-pressed extra virgin olive oil is made from organic olives in Israel. It was the winner of the Gold medal at the Premo Biol competition in Italy, making it one of the best organic extra virgin olive oils in the world! Our traditional za'atar spice mixture is made with sea salt and can be used as a bread dip with olive oil, or on meats, vegetables, or hummus. Each purchase supports a model for peace between Arabs and Jews. These and many, many more uniquely handcrafted gift items from 38 different countries can be found at our Fair Trade Shoppe, Stone Presbyterian Church, 8 So. Park Row, Clinton. Our regular hours are 10am to 4pm every Thursday, second Saturdays and every Saturday between Thanksgiving and Christmas.
